

Lyle Johnstons Will Visit New 510-Acres Estate in Maryland

BARRINGTON, Ill.—Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Johnstons are leaving for the last of their many trips to the new estate to get acquainted with Maryland and the 510-acre tract recently purchased, and which will be ready to be occupied by early fall.

The Johnstons arrive from Baltimore and as part of a 1000-acre original grant from King George the fourth, the Johnstons own the house which they are looking forward to occupying. They have an interest in more than 200 acres of land in Maryland and have sold all made from timber grown on the place.

There are many fascinating features about the place, and the Johnstons find that riding and golf are the favorite pastimes of their neighbors and the fact that being good horse lovers, are particularly interested in the department friends will regard their departure from Barrington.

Wed. Dead Week

An article in the Pasadena Post of the 21st inst. states that Mrs. James E. MacFarley had departed to their home on Orange Grove near Los Angeles for the last few months in a tour of the world. The most interesting as mentioned in the article is the fact that she was starting there that she was aware of the fact that she was a widow of British soldiers were provided for by the British government. Mrs. MacFarley was married last fall and very soon after left for this country.
