In abundance of good stock land. It is very productive and the present time it is operated as a profitable dairy unit.

7 Buildings were built and the lake developed by a Chicago millionaire, no less modern passed away. This is possibly one of the last lakes left in the Chicago land, that is privately owned on one farm. The stock can be purchased with farm, if desired. There is approximately $100,000.00 invested in this farm, but for quick liquidation, can be purchased at a price of $30,000.00.

Also

160 acres, with good modern, 8 rm. house, large pine trees around the buildings, large dairy barn, tenant house, 30 acres of oak and hickory timber and 1000 feet of wooded lake frontage. 2 miles from railroad station, very good transportation to and from Chicago.

This farm has been owned by the one estate for many years and has always been a profitable farm, overlooking a beautiful golf course. Buildings set back some distance from road.

This is being offered for liquidation at a price of $145,000.00. If interested, write for pictures or would be glad to show you the property by appointment only. Those properties must be sold at the fractional price of cost. Possession at once, if desired. Address Liquidating Agent, Barrington Review No. 2149
