Miss Mary Jencks and Tom Pettie married. The Methodist church was the scene of the wedding at high noon Saturday, when Miss Mary Jencks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Agnes Jencks of Chicago, and Tom Pettie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jencks of Rockwood, were united in marriage.

Decorative baskets of white lilies placed at the altar and bouquets of white gladioli, placed at the ends of the aisle, furnished a beautiful setting. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the bridesmaids, Misses Milwaukee, and the ring bearer, Miss Jencks, were assisted by Miss Newman.

White silk jersey ensemble with white accessories was worn by the bride, who carried a bouquet of white stock, baby's breath and gardenias. Miss Mary Ann Apple of Lincoln, was the bridesmaid, wearing a white silk dress and carried a bouquet of white gladioli, baby's breath and gardenias. The bridesmaids were assisted by Miss Newman, Miss Jencks, mother of the bride, and Miss Jencks, mother of the groom.

Miss Jencks, mother of the bride, wore a dress of white lilies and Mrs. Jencks, mother of the groom, wore a dress of pink rose. Miss Newman, who was best man, and Bennett Dreyer, who was ring bearer, wore white suits with yellow ties. The bridesmaids were assisted by Miss Newman, Miss Jencks, mother of the bride, and Miss Jencks, mother of the groom.

Knights Grand provided the music for the wedding. The bride and groom were married at the home of Mrs. J. H. Williams of Woodstock, was celebrated.

Following the service, there was a reception and early tea held in the parlors of the home. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mrs. Jencks, mother of the bride, and Miss Jencks, mother of the groom.
