

Bird Banding Club Picnics Sunday at A. Justice Estate

BARRINGTON HILLS—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Justice opened their beautiful estate at Bright Land Park Sunday afternoon to the Wild Bird Lyons Bird Banding organization in a comparatively warm and beautiful day.

Mr. Lyons was perhaps the most successful bird bander having banded large numbers of song birds in the past few years since he and Mrs. W. Jackson, his wife, have been particularly interested in game and bird work.

Mr. Jackson, who is employed at Bright Land Park, has been particularly interested in their own lake.

Both the members enjoyed a picnic luncheon near the banks of the lake and found many things of interest to them on the delightful grounds.

Yach Association

The Garden club of Barrington went on its excursion to the Morton Arboretum at Lake Montezuma first of all, luncheon was served at the Elmer Ponce Point to about 30 members.

The lecture was given in the beautifully painted "Olive" library of the Morton Arboretum. The lecture was held by Mr. Kammeyer. His interesting lecture dealt with "The Trees" as illustrated by living plants from the Arboretum grounds. The lecture was held in the afternoon and was held in the library and afforded the garden club members a most enjoyable afternoon.
