IT'S GETTING CLOSER Park Entrance is Still Unfinished Piece of Business

Board Members Disagree on Plan for Continuation of Road

Plans for paving the proposed new entrance to Northside park were discussed at a meeting held in the air at the result of objection by members of the park board to the new entrance proposed from Hough, through the parking lot to the main highway. This was raised at a joint meeting of village and park board members and the Lake County board on Monday. The park board stated that it did not want to take the entrance through the parking lot by cutting a 60-foot strip through the parking lot.
