

'Kid From Kokomo'
Is Week-End Bill
at Catlow Theatre

"Jurors." With Bette Davis. Here Wednesday

The second success of "Kid From Kokomo" produces a sensational film in the most lovable comic play dramatizing the life of "Kid from Kokomo" Dagwood and Betty Chaparral. The new film, "Hundred Men in the Boat" is coming to the Catlow Theatre with Penny Singleton and Arthur Hodge as leads.

It will be seen faster than lightning "Hundred Men in the Boat" opens a social characteristic with Dagwood. — It is in difficult to take his place at the office. Dagwood is forced to stay home because of a sore throat. The doctor's orders are followed by a lettering card, the doctor's office is closed and the patient is the guest of his neighbor. "Hundred Men in the Boat" on Friday and Saturday. Pastored to the east are Allan Lusk, Percy Kelly and "Hundred Men in the Boat" by Joseph Collins.

The picture that is a healthy dose of laughter is the best picture of the season. "Kid From Kokomo." The picture is coming to the Catlow Theatre in the first week from the start to the end. A famous picture which is to be seen by the audience of the Catlow Theatre.

"Hundred Men in the Boat" and the type of trouble which comes to the Catlow Theatre. Joe Blonk is in the audience. A famous picture which is to be seen by the audience of the Catlow Theatre. Joe Blonk is in the audience.

The Palomino
THE Palomino is the world's most beautiful, rare and true Palomino saddle horse. True Palominos come in many shades of cream or golden colors and have pure white manes and tails.
This rare old strain of horses was brought into this country more than 150 years ago from Mexico by the Spanish Dons.
They are the favorite mounts of movie stars and all riders of the Southwest and Northern California. Have a limited number of these beautiful horses for sale at my ranch in Southern Arizona. Also some pure white albino horses.
