

Dead End Kids in Week-End Feature at Catlow Theatre

"Wizard of Oz" Will Appear Here Thursday for Three Days

The feature showing at the Catlow theatre Saturday for one night only is "Madamopolis Spectacular" with Pat O'Brien, Ann Sheridan and Bob Payne.

"The Angels With Dirty Faces" and "The Sign of the Cross" are the feature at their latest picture, "The Angels Wash Their Faces." The "Angels," of course, are the featured "Dead End Kids" — Billy Halop, Bernard Feinberg, Lew Green, Hunts Hall, Gabriel Dell and Bobby Jordan.

Besides the Dead End Kids, the cast includes such stellar names as the "Madamopolis," the famed "rough girl" who for the first time is seen in a pathetic role and is allowed to show her fine acting ability, Ronald Reagan, Bonita Granville, Frankie Thomas and Edward G. Rossell.

Slightly reformed and at the time on the side of the law, the Dead End Kids are placed in a slum tenement neighborhood. Here, they cooperate with the city as a gang of adult criminals.

"Everybody's Hobby," a comedy, with melodramatic touches, featuring Irene Rich and Henry O'Neill, comes to the Catlow Tuesday night, in a bona-fide story of American life. Its characters are representative of just about every man, woman, boy and girl in this nation.

"Double Feature Tuesday" is "Prison Without Bars," directed by Alexander Korda, starring Corinne Luchaire, with Edna Best and Hugh Burman.

Solid stages on which "The Wizard of Oz," coming to the Catlow Thursday for three days, was filmed under hundreds of Technicolor lights, were called every morning to 54 degrees, so that Jeff Clatlow, Frank Moran, Ray Bolger, Jerry Lark, Jack Haley and the rest of the picture might work in comfort.

As soon as the lights were turned on the temperature rose to 75 degrees, wherever frequent pumping in of hot Chicago air was maintained.

The lights, generally 250 British thermal units. One thermal unit means enough heat to raise one pound of water one degree on the 250 special arc lights were used, drawing 20,000 amperes current, or enough to light 550 three-watt incandescent 100-watt globes in each room.

"They Always Come Out Just Right!"

And there's a good reason why—controlled cooling of the new gas range. You can see the latest model—range, water heaters, refrigerators—specially shown and demonstrated each week, the third annual Blue-Flame week, at your Public Service store or local gas appliance dealer.

Social Events and Club Meetings Open Hills Fall Season

BARRINGTON HILLS—Now that the outdoor days are nearly over and summer sports no more the paramount pastime, social activities are beginning again with lectures, book talks, etc. thrown in to balance charitable and work farew of various kinds.

Last Monday Miss Louise Wood began her series of five illustrated talks on different aspects of the period we know as the Italian Renaissance. Mrs. Andrew Dalzell opened her home for the occasion and a number of women were present. Miss Wood gave first a picture of present day Florence with impressions of war-time London on Italian people generally. Her slides and talk which followed showed Florence from medieval days up to the period of the Medici, and the days just preceding the Renaissance.

Her lecture next Monday, Oct. 23, will be on "The Medici" and Mrs. J. Stillson Hart will be hostess.

Mrs. Henry G. Zander Jr. comes to the Catlow Theatre, Oct. 25 to start her interesting course of book after a week spent in New York, and the days just preceding the Renaissance.

Long Scores Lone Touchdown to Mar Host's Homecoming

Barrington High Team to Play Strong Harem Eleven Here Saturday

The Barrington high school Bronchos spoiled the Grant homecoming Saturday at Fox Lake by defeating the host's team, 17-0, for their first conference football win since 1928. The team played much better than last week and the new shift to the lineup made a stronger offensive.

At the start of the second quarter, the Bronchos got the ball down to the Grant 15-yard line, but there they took a punt. The Grant half back when they recovered a Bannockton kick, but on every play Grant's left half back, Koch, examined and after a while came for it. Heesterode recovered for the Bronchos on the Grant 15-yard line.

On the next play long went through right tackle for a touch-down. Long holding the ball, T. Fullerton, block kicked for the extra point, putting the Bronchos into the lead, 7-0 a margin which held through the rest of the game. The Bronchos had a 10-0 lead at the 15-yard line. On the next play the Bronchos had a 14-0 lead. Koch sleeper and received Koch's pass, going down the right side of the field to the Bronchos 27-yard line. Two plays later Koch tossed a 27-yard pass to the Bronchos which went good to the 15-yard line.

The third quarter each team started a punt to the Bronchos 15-yard line. The Bronchos came to Parlatto to the 15-yard line. Grant was penalized 5 yards for offside, and two plays later Fullerton intercepted Koch's pass to stop the Bronchos' attack. The Bronchos line stood up very well and completely kept the Grant's line part to check the Grant advance to the Barrington goal line. The Bronchos had a few of backing up the line. Farrell did some nice blocking for the Bronchos and they stopped many plays with his tackling.

The Bronchos made six first downs on Grant's field. The Bronchos completed four out of six forward passes. Grant completed seven out of 13 passes, seven of which were intercepted. The Bronchos intercepted the Ball's pass. The Bronchos had a 17-0 lead at the end of the game. The Bronchos had a 17-0 lead at the end of the game. The Bronchos had a 17-0 lead at the end of the game.

Drivers' Knowledge of Vehicular Laws Gaining, Says State

The number of drivers who have by examination proven their knowledge of the rules of the road and their ability to operate in accord with them is increasing rapidly according to report of the state automobile department today. Statistics of State Road & Highways Department show that 4699 operators applying for the drivers license decal were in Cook county have been put through examinations and licensed as experienced drivers. The automobile department anticipates a steady flow of tested drivers on Illinois roads as a result of the universal examining now in operation. All applicants for drivers' licenses must be prepared to write possibly ten days before notification of the date of examination while preparations are made between the automobile department and the examining agencies.

board at their last meeting, and will soon be ready for traffic.

Mrs. Rogers has been visiting down the street at Fox Lake, made by Mr. S. Clark has returned from Duquoin.

W. A. Loomis and wife are at home again.

Miss Bertha Scherer spent a few days last week at Cary.

The kitchen on Mr. L. P. Schroeder's home is now being built making his residence complete.

There is a description of one village in the post office that was printed about 50 years ago, giving it advantage to home-makers also a partial business directory.

The first accident reported on the new railroad occurred last Saturday evening at the track yards, where a horse from

Stewart, who is still was intoxicated, on the flat car, attempted to jump from the car to the pilot of the engine, but missed and fell just on the outside edge of the rail, the car passed over him, and one leg, arm and several vertebrae in American train was broken.

He was brought to town by a milk wagon and taken into Mr. Pinger's house, there being no room in the Bennett house. Dr. Richardson was called but said there was no hope for his recovery. He died in about a half hour.

He was taken to the house. The owner from Libertyville held an inquest over his remains on Monday. The jury brought in the following verdict: "Met his death by a shock while stopping on the flat car to the pilot of the engine, while under the influence of liquor, concentrating the railroad company from all blame."

It was learned that he had a mother and brother living, but they could not be located, and he was buried in the Barrington city.

A runaway was the excitement for last Wednesday. A horse broke the car strap and started down the street at Fox Lake, made a very short turn at the first corner against the barrier and ran into Mr. Kutia's shade, where the horse fell and broke the shaft and withered. One of the horse's hind legs was badly bruised but thought not serious. The horse is to be owned by a liverman at Palatine, and was driven by Mr. P. Hines.

Mr. O. H. Comstock and wife started for Rock Springs, Ga. Tuesday last. Mr. Comstock says if he sells him down there he will not come back here to freeze the winter.

Orders Briefs Filed in Fight for Child

Judge Ralph J. Daly instructed attorneys to the briefs on the habeas corpus for the return of four-year-old Linda Lee Troup to her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Troup of Kewanee county, Ind., by Frank Troup, an employer of the Waukegan golf club, at the close of oral arguments Friday. The hearing was held in the Lake county circuit court in Waukegan.

Mrs. Troup, who obtained a divorce on January 17, 1932, in Clark, Ind., claimed that Troup took the child from the Indiana jurisdiction. In May, 1935, she contended, an amended divorce decree gave her custody of the child.

Attorney for Troup claims he was given custody of the child under the original divorce decree granted to Mrs. Troup.
