Social Events and Club Meetings Open Hills Fall Season

BARRINGTON HILLS—Now that the outdoor days are nearly over and summer sports no more the paramount pastime, social activities are beginning again with lectures, book talks, etc. thrown in to balance charitable and welfare work of various kinds.

Last Monday Miss Louise Wadsworth had her series of five illustrated talks on different aspects of the work we know as the Italian Renaissance. Mrs. Andrew Dallenbaum offered her home for the occasion and a number of women were present.

Miss Wood gave first a picture of present day Florence with impressive war-time influences on Italian people generally. Her slides and talk which followed showed Florence from medieval days up to the period of the Medici, and the days just preceding the Renaissance.

Her lecture next Monday, Oct. 23, will be on "The Medici" and Mrs. H. Stillson Hart will be hostess.

Mrs. Henry O. Zander Jr. comes on Wednesday, Oct. 25, to start her interesting course of book talks. Mrs. Guy V. Hutchinson will be the first hostess. The book review will be preceded by a general summary of fiction of the present day.

Mr. Robert Buckley is hostess for Mrs. Rowland's review of some current play on Tuesday, Oct. 24. The Visiting Nurses meet next Monday with Mrs. Robert Buckley. The meeting is called for 10:30 a. m.

Mr. Paul Trier will be hostess in the Barrington chapter of Infant Welfare next Wednesday at 10:30 a. m.

Assisting Debut Party The Women's Board of the Ravenswood hospital is giving its annual card party at the Edgewater Beach hotel in Chicago Friday, Oct. 27. Several Barrington Hills women are active in promoting this benefit and a number will attend the party.

Hiding Club Meets The Hiding club is taking advantage of these glorious fall days and Sunday morning they met at the Charles Buckley corner and after a ride of an hour and a half turned in at the Robert Buckley's for their usual wrap-up.

Next Sunday they ride again but the wind-up page is always a surprise.

Presumably Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hecht are at home at the Meadows again after a week spent in New York and Mrs. Andrew Dallenbaum
