

"The Women," With Norma Shearer, in Week-End Feature

"The Old Maid." Starring Betty Davis, Coming Wednesday

"The Catlow theater presents as its feature attraction Broadway's new day only, "Hells Kitchen," in the "Old Maid," starring Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford and Norma Shearer. It is no show of 185 females, as the Catlow Sunday, not only boasts a human cast of 125 females, but a feminine animal cast as well.

All wild birds, dogs and cats appearing before the camera had a dose of the "gentler sex," and some 25 bluebirds of this variety were seen at the Catlow Sunday.

Romantic Louisiana, regarded by many as the most naturally beautiful state in the union, is the focal point in the new motion picture, "Way Down South," coming to the Catlow Sunday.

Adapted from the famous stage play by Eugene O'Neill, "The Iceman Cometh," starring Victor McLaglen, with Tom Brown, John Grey, Constance Moore and William Praxley.

On Monday the Catlow theater will present one of the most outstanding pictures of the season, starting the new year series of "The Old Maid," Costarring with Miss Davis in Miriam Hopkins and Gene Raymond.

Woman's Club Will Present Pianist at Norwood Pk. Friday

The music department of the Norwood Park Woman's club will present Mae Doelling Schmidt in a piano recital Friday evening, Nov. 10, at the Norwood Park field house, Natona and Ardmore avenue.

Mrs. Schmidt is an artist of great renown and may be heard as the soloist of the Chicago Symphony orchestra. She has just returned from a concert tour in the east and has given similar programs in various parts of the country and abroad.

Mrs. George Parkison, who is a member of the board of Woman's Aid, of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, will tell of the importance of promoting fine music and particularly about the orchestra.

Mr. David Mahon of Barrington and Miss Janet Trogger of Oak Park will be in charge of the woman's part. The program at a "Lovers' Dinner" to be given by the Minnesota club of Chicago University of Minnesota alumni, orientation on Friday, Nov. 10 at 7 p. m. in the dining hall, will be at 638 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago.
