

"Four Feathers" Comes to Catlow Sunday, Monday

"Babe in Arms" Will Begin Three-Day Engagement Thursday

Clark Gable and Lionel Barrymore took no chances when they head what Mickey Rooney says is the most important scene in a scene of the Catlow theatre coming to the city on Sunday and Monday. They both went to the city last week to meet with the directors and to avert libel at the hands of the irresponsible Rooney.

In the scene, Mickey played two parts, those of "Cicopatra's Uncle" and "Clark Anthony." Miss Priss was Cicopatra, Mickey played the two parts for the first time. "Not bad, Mickey," said Rooney, "not bad." Gable remained silent, "What for?" Mickey said, "I'll tell you," said Gable with his usual flair. "One of us must be rotten!"

Bob Richardson, co-star with John Clements, June Dupres and Edna Smith in "Four Feathers," is the technician who directs the scene which begins an engagement at the Catlow. Richardson said he didn't spend all his time on the job but picture-making. He took nearly every afternoon, for he had to make films for Richardson and a small party hired him and his technicians. They bagged over 50 scenes in half an hour when they. "Four Feathers" is the first of the campaign in the Sedan, which will be fought the next day and over the fierce and savage rule of the Mahdi.

1350 Toys Will Be Forwarded to Five Chicago Charities

BARRINGTON HILLS.—The Christmas Toy shop at the Hyde Sunnyside home was thrilling place Sunday afternoon when a large number of visitors came to inspect and admire the 1350 gifts before being forwarded to the five Chicago charities in the Ben C. Class assisted in the re-conditioning of these toys and Mrs. Thomas Howard, Mrs. Randolph Payson, Mrs. John F. Farrar and Mrs. J. H. Jones are most anxious that each one should know how appreciative they are of this help and how much it meant to them.

The gifts going to five charities in Chicago—the Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild, St. Vincent's Orphanage, the Visiting Nurse organization, United Charities and the Ridge Park Protestant church. On Friday the various charities' boxes are sent in their contributions to the Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild for their Christmas distribution and, according to tradition, all clubs have been more generous than usual and the beneficiaries are sure to cheer the hearts of many little people.

Are Married Saturday

Spokane Benefit Movie

The Infant Welfare is sponsoring the 19:30 movie on next Sunday morning and is most eager to make it a success. A package of food in the only edition can be made and these donations are later to be distributed by high school pupils to the needy families of Barrington.

Give Organ to Group

One of the finest organs in the possession of an electric organ in the Barrington St. James Sunday school. The parent church in Duden has for many years offered this little group. In the last year they have established themselves in the new temple on Cook street, and now James Kumpfer of Winnetka has come forward with this organ as his Christmas gift to them. On December 14 at 1:30 in the afternoon will also be given their annual Christmas party in Dundee and the decorated tree in the church will also be given to his fortunate children.

Visit Art Exhibit

Christmas activities are beginning to press into the foreground and few happenings of any other nature are recorded, but a number of Barrington Hills women have found time and formed groups to make the tour of the Italian exhibit at the Art Institute in Chicago. They have found Miss Louise Wood a splendid guide. The finest famous paintings are to be seen on exhibition until January 8 and are sure to attract other groups from Barrington.

Board Meets

A meeting of the board of directors of the Centraide association was held Monday night at the home of the president, Frank A. Hecht Jr. Interesting plans are underway and the meeting was a successful one.
