Babel-On with R.F. Kuang

Thursday, May 19, 7 PM

R.F. Kuang's genre-bending fiction broaches ordinarily serious topics from a satirical and fantastical perspective. Academic yet approachable, Kuang's work combines history, magic, and classical literary tradition to render powerful critiques of academia, the publishing industry, and contemporary popular culture. Her most recent novel, Katabasis, follows two graduate students as they descend into hell after the death of their professor, and the screen rights options were sold to Amazon MGM Studios for an upcoming TV series. This event is intended for adults. Register.

PLEASE NOTE: Registration for these events closes at 5 PM on event day. Late registrations will be processed after the live event, allowing access to the event recording.

These events made possible by Illinois Libraries Present (ILP), a statewide collaboration among public libraries offering premier events. ILP is funded in part by a grant awarded by the Illinois State Library, a department of the Office of the Secretary of State, using funds provided by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services, under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA).

ILP is committed to inclusion and accessibility. American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation and Closed Captioning provided for all events by default—no request needed. If accommodations are needed, please contact Accessibility@BALibrary.org
